The announcement of the new "Cloverland Bread" made by the Star Bakery (121 Superior) caused a rush of customers to try it out. Under the management Nylund and Herrgard the most modern methods are being employed and the result has been a gratifying increase in business. Another truck for delivery will soon be put into service and all five men employed at the bakery and the delivery man plus the girl in the retail department are kept constantly busy. Ad: A bread fit to grace the table of a prince at a price that is astonishingly low price. Bake fresh every day with only the finest ingredients with the strictest insurance of cleanliness.
