The three capitalists who control the mineral rights under the City of Iron Mountain will sell the "privilege" of mining the same for $200,000. Owners Joseph Fleshiem along with Isaac and Sam Stephenson has already refused an offer of $75,000. It should be understood that the owners sell only their right of lease to mine and not the minerals outright.

The dentist that established a dental office in Crystal Falls after much solicitation and to the relief of area citizens at the beginning of the month announced that he will discontinue his practice. Dr. R.W. Boyer of the firm of Jones & Boyer of Marquette, a graduate of the Ann Arbor Dental School, had established an office in a portion of Dr. A.M. Darling's suite in the Lindsay Building (300 Superior).
