

Diamond Drill

Out of the Past

August 11, 1976

Mrs. Hazel Salin of Mastodon Township has been chosen by the East Side Veterans Council as the 1976 Woman of the Year. She has been commended for her outstanding volunteer work for various groups in the area. Hazel employed at the Crystal Manor (400 Superior) for the last 10 years is the daughter Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gollakner and along with her husband Clifford are the parents of three children, Fred, presently attending Western Michigan University after serving seven years in the Air Force, Diane who will graduate from Western Michigan University August 20th and Walter employed in Kalamazoo.

Thirteen local tennis buffs competed in the "Woodtick" Tennis Tournament held at the Forest Park School's courts. Participants included from Crystal Falls: John Force, Dale Hendrickson, Tom Kudwa, Carmen Marmo, Leo Schiavo, Paul Schultz, Mark Stelle, Dr. Robert Stelle, Thad Stender and Mike Webb with West Iron County participants: Steve Broslavich, Bob Johnson and Mike Vanakeren. Bob Johnson prevailed as the champion of the round-robin event with John Force being declared "Woodtick" for 1976.

WOMAN OF THE YEAR

Hazel Salin is shown perched atop Vernon Jones right side drive English Wolseley during the V-J parade. Hazel received the honor because of her many services to the veterans organizations and senior citizens.