

Diamond Drill

Out of the Past

August 3, 1923

Alfred Nylund of the Star Bakery (121 Superior) informs the public that demand for his baked stuff, especially his bread, is so great that he cannot supply all the demands upon him. He set out to advertise his bakery in the early summer and now he is faced with the necessity of turning down business or putting on an extra shift.

The Amasa Township Board has decided to order a curfew rang each evening at 8 o'clock and instructed the marshal to see to it that children under 16 years of age are kept off the streets of the village after that time of night. The action was taken upon the request of the Women's Civic Club. The Board also made a change in the office of "Poundmaster", selecting William Hermanson with the responsibility to effectively keep the cattle off the village streets.

Ad: Lost & Found – Beaver scarf between Crystal Falls and Iron Mountain, possibly at the Stager Depot on July 21st. Reward for return to the Diamond Drill.