

Diamond Drill

Out of the Past

September 12, 1896

Justice of the Peace Robert Munns and Constable Eli Massie quarreled over a horse. Some hot words were exchanged and blows followed, in which the Constable proved his prowess. The Justice, dissatisfied with result, caused the arrest of the Constable, with a court hearing scheduled for a later date.

The upcoming fifth annual Iron County Fair, presented by the Iron County Agricultural Society, will be held in Iron River with a full brass band performing in addition to the conventional sports and pastimes. Winners in each event will be awarded a diploma of championship in addition to liberal prizes. The fair promises to be a notable event in the history of Iron County.

$5 Reward! Lost in Crystal Falls, a spaniel dog, eight months old, brown, curly with white spot of breast, slightly lame in right hind foot. Finder will receive the reward for returning same or notifying Dr. William McBurney at Amasa.