The Michigan Liquor Control Commission has adopted two strongly-worded regulations aimed against Sunday drinking and off-color entertainment in bars, taverns and night clubs. The first regulation covers places offering dancing and entertainment: Entertainers shall not eat drink or mingle with the patrons; There shall be no overcrowding of the dance floor; No patrons shall be allowed to take an active part in any entertainment except community singing; No lewd, obscene or immoral language or exhibitions or dancing shall be permitted. The second regulation provides that on Sundays all beverages having an alcohol content of more than 16 per cent shall be kept "continuously inaccessible in securely locked compartments during restricted hours".
