

Diamond Drill

Out of the Past

July 32, 1950

Though a wee bit behind him, Crystal Falls City Attorney Leigh C. Caswell's wallet is back from Canada. The well-known attorney lost his wallet in Canada while on a fishing trip with his wife and Dr. and Mrs. Robert B. Hockings. The group retraced their path, hunting high and low but was unsuccessful in locating the wallet. While on their route home, Caswell's son Ira here in Crystal Falls received a long-distance phone from a Winnipeg, Manitoba resident, Al McClure who had found the missing item and would return it to Crystal Falls as he passed through our fair city on his vacation trip to Oshkosh, Wisconsin.

Fifteen little friends of Jessica Neely were guests at her third birthday party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Neely. In attendance were: Bobby and Susan Ahola, Christine and Paul Anderson, Jeanette Boulanger, Dianne and Kathy Enstrom, Billy, Evelyn and Patrick Kennedy, Carol and Christine Lada, Paula Soha, Thaddeus Stender and her little sister Pricilla Neely.