Out of the Past

July 27, 1961

William Rosemurgy Jr. and his wife Jeannie along with infant son William have arrived in Crystal Falls to assume his duties as manager of the Gambles Store (337 Superior) owned by his father of Ontonagon, Michigan. Rosemurgy (23) graduated from Northern Michigan University in June replaces former manager Ed Leismer who has been transferred to a Gambles Store in Waukesha, Wisconsin. The Rosemurgy Family will make their home in the McCash house (128 Iron). The Gambles Agency was originated in 1938 in the building located at 208 Superior Avenue before moving to the former Crystal Falls Co-Op Building (337 Superior) in 1944.

The Rev. J. Tuomisto, ordained on July 2 by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Ely, Minnesota, will assume his duties as pastor of the Sion Lutheran Church in Amasa. He replaces Vicar Reino Heikkila, a seminarian who served the Church for 14 months. Rev. Tuomisto, a native of Toronto, Canada is married and the father of two children will also be in charge of the Lutheran Congregations in Covington and Beechwood and make their home at the parsonage at Covington.
