Diamond Drill

Out of the Past

November 12, 1926

The Boy Scouts of Crystal Falls are making their presence known sponsoring a fund raising dance at the City Hall. This spring 42 boys on their own volition formed a Scout Group. Presently there are three senior troops plus an additional 20 boys in a junior troop who are anxiously awaiting their coming to the age when they can join the senior scouts.

Iron County Sheriff James Dickie has informed the public that it is his intention to keep the names of his Deputy Sheriffs secret hereafter. His reasoning is that if bootleggers and blind piggers learn who his deputies are making them unable to get any evidence on the offenders. It is argued by some in the public that there are a lot more people in the County besides bootleggers and blind piggers who are entitled to know whom to call upon in case of necessity, stating that a secret police force should not be maintained to spy upon the populace.
