

Diamond Drill

Out of the Past

November 2, 1950

Tom Whitman and Janet Davison, Crystal Falls High School graduates, were crowned King and Queen of Northern Michigan College of Education's campus at the traditional Coronation Ball in the Lee Hall on the Marquette campus. The crowning was a highlight of the annual college's homecoming celebration. Nominations were made by the campus clubs and organizations based on citizenship, personality, extra-curricular activities and general popularity. Miss Davison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davison (412 Forest Ave.), a junior mathematics major is a transfer student from the College of St. Scholastic in Duluth. Whitman, son of Mrs. Ina Whitman, a senior business major is a Navy veteran of WWII. The King and Queen rode in royal fashion during the homecoming parade which featured thirty floats.

Crystal Falls Police Chief Frank Carlson made the warning to pedestrians "You're only two feet from death anytime you venture into the street in connection with the Michigan State Safety Commission program. 419 persons in Michigan walked to their deaths in 1949 and the toll for injured pedestrians was in the thousands for the year 1949.

Northern Campus Royalty

—Photo Courtesy Marquette Mining Journal

Tom Whitman and Janet Davison, pictured above, Crystal Falls high school alumni, were crowned King and Queen of Northern Michigan College of Education's campus at the traditional Coronation ball in the ballroom of Lee hall at the Marquette college Friday night.

pus, were based on citizenship, personality, extra-curricular activities, and general popularity. The eight students who received the highest number of votes became this year's candidates, who in turn were voted upon by the student body.

The other queen candidates