

Diamond Drill

Out of the Past

August 4, 1960

Miss Diane Enstrom, attractive and shapely daughter of Mrs. Robert Longhi, Crystal Falls, salvaged the honor of the State of Michigan in taking the runner-up title at the annual Miss Vacation Queen pageant held at South Haven, Michigan. The thirteen entries in the resort area beauty contest represented local South Haven businesses with contestants hailing from all parts of the Midwest. The Crystal Falls High School senior was the only Michigan girl to survive the judging which called for selection of the top three of the field. Miss Enstrom wore the banner of Mickey's Restaurant where she is a tourist season employee. Also employed at the restaurant are two Crystal Falls school friends, Miss Sally Thomson and Miss Kay Butler.

A letter is on file with the Crystal Falls Chamber of Commerce in which the E.J. Bregger Estate offers the Delft Theatre (304 Superior) for sale at a price of $12,000 which includes building, fixtures and equipment. The location has long been the site of a theatre business, Gem Theatre (1915 – 1925), EJay Theatre (1927 -1944) and the Delft (1947 – 1957).