Amasa News: The Catholic Church was completed last week with a new coat of paint and new roof giving the structure an improved appearance. In another week the Swedish Church will be ready with the interior finishes work nearing completion. The Finnish congregation has begun work on tearing down the old school building with the salvaged materials to construct a church. The Hematite School Board of Education is furnishing materials for construction of a tennis court in the school yard with much of the work is being done by the teachers. The annual school year for the Hematite Township Schools began on August 31st. Total enrollment for the Senior High School is 72 and for the Junior High 70. Six new teachers have been hired which includes: Carl E. Gustafson (Business), Miss Nellie Lorah (History), Miss Alice Nyman (Home Economics), Samuel Freed (Jr. High Principal & Coach), Miss Mae Fulmer (Jr. High English) and Miss Edna Nyman (Kindergarten).
