Out of the Past

March 12, 1898

Word has been received that the Village of Watersmeet located in Gogebic County just west of the Iron County line has been nearly wiped out by a recent fire. Only one building remains upon the main street of the town.

For the first time in four or five years the Reporter Newspaper reports that every table in the Boyington Hotel in Iron River was brought into service Thursday in order to accommodate the guests of the house. Iron River is rapidly coming to the front as one of the liveliest places in the Upper Peninsula.

Ad: There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that "Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root", the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects the inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it or the bad effects following the use of liquor, wine or beer and overcomes the unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. Sold by druggists for the price of 50 cents per bottle.
