Out of the Past

September 11, 1958

Crystal Falls resident Rudy Marketto has defended his Upper Peninsula Field Archery Association title when the 224 arrows left his bowstring for a score of 669 out of a possible 1,120 points. The result also earned him an Expert Class "A" designation. The competition consists of 28 targets with varying size bullseyes depending on distance with each archer shooting four arrows at each, either from one position or from four, with different distances ranging from five to 50 yards and different angles.

The total enrollment for the Crystal Falls Public School District is 944 as compared to 950 last year. Breakdown: Kindergarten (79), First (84), Second (73), Third (83), Fourth (75), Fifth (78), Sixth (76), Seventh (74), Eighth (66), Ninth (72), Tenth (70), Eleventh (65), Twelfth (49).

Maskus Radio and T.V. (415 Superior), a business established in March 1955 by Frank Maskus, will close this weekend. Maskus had conducted his repair service on a part time basis from his home before moving to the former Jacobs Jewelry building next to Superior Auto Service.

TOP U. P. ARCHERS—Pictured above are Irene Doerhman of Iron River and Rudy Marketto of Crystal Falls, who with scores of 531 and 689 respectively, won the 1958 Upper Peninsula Field Archery Association championships in the women's and men's divisions at a meet held last Sunday at Pine Archery Club in Baraga. This is the highest award an archer may gain in competition in the upper peninsula. See story on sport page.
