Adolph Lustfield received orders for three railroad cars of potatoes last Tuesday morning. He succeeded in picking up one car load and is looking for more. Potatoes are in great demand just now and the chances are they will be worth more money per bushel later on.

Monday morning found only two saloons doors open in Amasa; those being George Premo's and Dominic Dallafoir's establishments.

The Crystal Falls area schools report that 102 pupils are enrolled in the kindergarten class.
