Max Woelfler, McNeill Oiler softball pitcher came up with a no-hitter against the Cloverland Lumber team last week. Members of the Cloverland team are asking for a clarification on the definition of a "no-hitter"! Max, who has a tendency to be wild at times, commented "They didn't get any hits but I hit plenty of them".

The F&S Store (336 Superior) and Kennelration Co. sponsored a dog show where 15 area youngsters paraded their pets in the novel contest with judging in five categories. Winners included: (Best at Show) Kathy Impola and her miniature collie; (Best Trained) Peggy Simeoni with her German Weirmaraner; (Most Obedient) Duane Williams and his collie; (Best Groomed) Jill Madden with a French Poodle owned by Mrs. Gertrude Odgers and (Best Costumed) Priscilla Neely with a beagle incarcerated in a doll buggy and dressed in appropriate garb.
