

Diamond Drill

Out of the Past

January 12, 1961

Gail Frederickson, daughter of Mrs. Marty Leppiaho of Crystal Falls was named to represent Iron County in the Michigan State "Cherry Pie" contest. Miss Frederickson (16), a junior student at Crystal Falls High School, won her trip down state in competition against contestants from Iron River and Stambaugh. The contestants each prepared and baked a cherry pie using their own recipes and were judged on the method of preparation and quality of the finished product and included an interview by a panel of judges. The competition is sponsored by the Michigan Association of Cherry Producers and Processors.

Chester James Sartori is the Crystal Falls' New Year's baby for 1961. The infant, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Sartori, was born at 4PM on January 6 and weighed 7 pounds two ounces at birth and joins a brother, Charles Joseph (4). Maternal grandfather is Charles Peltola, paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sartori.

BAKING CHAMP — Gail Frederickson, center, daughter of Mrs. Marty Leppiaho, Maple Street, is at Grand Rapids today and tomorrow as a representative of Iron County in a state-wide cherry pie baking contest sponsored by Michigan cherry growers and processors. Miss Frederickson won the county title recently in a local contest held at Iron River. Her pie was picked by a panel of judges over entries baked by Aggie Jo Crowgey, Iron River, left, and Leah LaFave, Stambaugh, runners-up.

(Reporter Photo)

NEW YEAR'S BABY — Chester James Sartori, shown in his mother's arms in the maternity ward at Municipal Hospital is Crystal Falls' New Year's baby for 1961. The infant, the second child of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Sartori, was born at 4 p. m. on January 6. He weighed 7 pounds, two and a half ounces at birth, and joins a brother, Charles Joseph, four years old. The maternal grandfather is Charles Peltola. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sartori are the grandparents on the father's side.

(Drill Photo)