

Diamond Drill

Out of the Past

September 24, 1959

The display window of the Crystal Falls Coast to Coast Store (228 Superior) features two live male pheasants and one hen. A large flock of the birds were raised by store owners Ed and Virginia Steinmentz at the Fred Boehmke home in the Western Location. The unique advertising coincides with the sale of the pheasants either in pairs or singly.

The Crystal Falls City Commission is debating the purchase of the Mathews property located on the Northwest corner of South Fifth Street and Marquette Avenue. The property offered to the City by the Abe Mathews estate for $10,000 is being considered for the proposed use as a new City library facility. The Commission is also looking at the purchase of the Ivar Maki building (411 Superior) located adjacent to the City Hall for development into a combination library recreation center.

Mrs. Elsie Scherer out stroked Mrs. Elise McKinzie to win the Crystal Falls Women's Golf Club championship. Other winners included First Flight: Sigrid Swanson; Second Flight: Carol Ahl and Third Flight: Sally Nylund.