

Diamond Drill

Out of the Past

March 6, 1897

The Crystal Falls Silver Cornet Band has been re-organized with 16 members. Many of the musicians are not novices with their respective instruments having been members of the old Silver Cornet Band formed back in 1890. Under the leadership of Thomas Bosanko the new Band is expected to participate in local parades and civic events as was the custom in the past. Members include cornet: Thomas Wills, L.A. Henry, G.E. Voos, George Johnson, Oscar Widstrand and Joseph Thouin; Trombone: Adam Bower; Alto: Will Wills and C.M. Dusenbery; Clarinet: J.C. Wilkinson, Bass: Frank Ball; Baritone: John Gribble; Tuba: Robert Wilson, Snare Drum: Will Bosanko and Bass Drum: Otto Urban.

Bids are being requested for construction of a new iron bridge spanning the Michigamme River in Mansfield Township. The new structure will be constructed at a point 200' down from the existing bridge which will be demolished once the new bridge opens.

Ad: Table service equal to any two dollar boarding house in town. Margison House (16 South Fourth Street.