

Diamond Drill

Out of the Past

October 22, 1975

Chic and Avy Shrock, who have operated Shrock's Resort on the East shore of Lake Emily between Crystal Falls and Bates who purchased the property from Walter Gollakner in August of 1967 have announced the sale of the business to Mr. and Mrs. Fred "Smokey" Stover of Hammond, Indiana. Stover, who with John Lattimer purchased the Tirapelli-Richards camp in the McCutcheon country eleven years ago, has been a frequent visitor to this area and became friends with the Shrock's, who also own a farm in Kokomo, Indiana. Gollakner purchased the 209 feet of prime frontage from Walter Scott in 1954.

William Stream (27), a Mansfield Location native, has been hired as a management trainee by the First National Bank of Crystal Falls (305 Superior) according to John Rodda, FNB Cashier and CEO. Stream is a 1966 graduate of Crystal Falls High School and graduated with honors from Northern Michigan University in June 1970 where he was also a member and MVP of the NMU Tennis Team. He has previously been employed as the Ontonagon County Equalization Director.