

Diamond Drill

Out of the Past

November 7, 1973

The Forest Park High School Drama Club, departing from the long string of three-act comedy presentations, presented the drama "Now That The Children Are Grown" at the Forest Park Gymnasium. Tony Grudnoski, drama club advisor, described the play as perhaps a bit shocking and certainly thought-provoking. Domestic upheaval wrought by parental conflict is the theme of the presentation starring Mary Marusich and Jay Maki as older children living in a home shattered by a family broken by divorce. A total of 45 in all are involved in the presentation and production of the play.

A new Crystal Falls Area Jaycee organization was formed at a meeting held at the Westwood Supper Club. The local organization is the end product of efforts made by the West Side Jaycees to inspire interest in a new organization of younger men in Crystal Falls interested in fostering the community level activities commonly associated with the Chamber of Commerce organizations. Peter Benda Jr. was elected president with other officers including Tom Clark, Bob Groop, Dr. Frederick Ludwig, Dave Puskala, Jerry Shoup and Walter Winkowski.

THE STARRING ROLES in the school play to be presented at the high school gym tomorrow and Friday evenings, are those of Mary Marusich and Jay Maki, who are Noreen and Chad, older children in the Patterson family. The play is a presentation of the Forest Park Drama Club, and will be presented under the direction of Tony Grudnoski, club advisor.

SCHOOL PLAY CAST—Members of the Forest Park Drama Club staged a Wednesday matinee, and Thursday and Friday evening public performances of a serious drama, "Now That The Children Are Grown," last week. Members of the cast are shown during a curtain call. They are, left to right, Joanne Leppiaho, Jean Echola, Sharon Helmerl, Greg Plowe, Erpie Pagel, Curt Stebic, Mary Marusich, Jay Maki, Karen Pagel, Tracy Trewnick, Sue Perry, Dean Sandri, Jeanette Myers and Cindy Klima.