The first New Year's baby born at the Crystal Falls Municipal Hospital award goes to Gerald Eino Ketola, five pound 14 ounce son of Mr. and Mrs. Eino Ketola of Amasa.

The return of the Crystal Falls Youth dance following the Crystal Falls – Iron Mountain basketball game Friday night was held at the City Hall Auditorium. Sponsored by the Crystal Falls Woman's Club music was provided by the Twi-lighters.

It's quite alright to bang your bride around the house occasionally and it is O.K. if she hits back. A study by Dr. James F. Bender says that many "happily married" couples slap each other especially in the first year of marriage. The Dr. also states that families should have six to eight children to keep them so busy they have no time for neuroses which leads to divorce.
