Diamond Drill

Out of the Past

November 8, 1951

If it looks like snow, park your vehicle off the streets or alleys of Crystal Falls or suffer the consequences. Crystal Falls City Police will enforce the parking ordinance adopted three years ago which is effective from November 1st to May 1st.

Rollin Hammerberg, who is associated with his father in the operation of Hammerberg's City Drug Store (324 Superior) and Robert B. Flood, owner of Flood's Auto Supply (237 Superior) have recently acquired lots in the residential areas of Crystal Falls for building purposes. Site of the future home of the Hammerberg's (208 S. Fifth Street) is located between the Larson and Horowitz residences. The Flood's, who now reside at 117 Crystal Avenue, plan to construct a home (716 W. Superior) on property located between the Paro and Soderberg residences. In addition the Alex Slivensky family has recently occupied their new bungalow style home (171 Lind Rd.) in the Lind District.
