Iron County voters flocked to the polls in record numbers to cast their votes for candidates seeking 21 offices, ranging from President of the United States to the Iron County Judge of Probate. Many municipalities reported 80 percent of the eligible voters casting their ballots. The voting totals heavily favored the Democratic ticket with incumbent Sheriff Edward P. Sandri the only Republican winning candidate (5,819 – 3,184) over opponent Lester Manfrom.

Research by the Michigan Education Association showed that one-fifth of the teachers in the Upper Peninsula do not hold a degree. Of the 2,741 teachers in the Upper Peninsula 1,666 hold a bachelor's degree and 527 hold a master's degree according to figures based on a report released by the Michigan State Department of Public Instruction.
