

Diamond Drill

Out of the Past

August 8, 1973

Mrs. Lorraine Nelson, mother of three grown sons and “mother hen” to 20 permanent and transient residents at her Nelson’s Hotel (60 Superior) local community landmark known as the former PX or Moberg Hotel, has been selected by the East Side Veterans Council as “Woman of the Year”. The recent widow, along with her husband Lawrence, has three sons Larry, Kenneth and Jim. Lorraine is more than just a proprietor to her extended “family” who range in age from 18 – 90, but her special care for the needs and well-being of her guests led to her selection.

Paul Schultz, assistant Iron County Prosecutor has been named to replace long tenured Ozzie Casanova who has resigned his duties as Iron County Prosecutor. Schultz, a native of Detroit, graduate of Wayne State University Law School, joined the local law practice with Casanova in January after eight years of law practice in Detroit.

The past week has been a big one for the Davis Auto Dine Softball team. Winners of their six consecutive CFSA League Title plus the Iron Mountain District Title with their star pitcher Dobie Anderson logging two no-hitters, one a perfect game.